

Scheme of work for EYFS & KS1 Phonics

Letters and Sounds - Nursery and Year 2

At William Reynolds Primary School and Nursery, we use the 'Letters and Sounds' guidance for the systematic teaching of phonics for Nursery and Year 2. Children are taught phonics daily and have opportunities to use and apply their learning across the curriculum throughout the day.

Children will start to develop their phonic skills beginning with Phase 1 phonics and Listen with Lucy. In Phase 1, children learn what makes different sounds, common nursery rhymes and make and explore sounds. This occurs for the first half term for N2 children and for our new termly intake of Nursery children into N1. They will be taught in differentiated groups to enable support and extension of their learning if required. Children's progress in phonics is reviewed as they progress through the scheme. Those in N2 who are secure and confident in Phase 1 phonics will then move onto phase 2 whilst others will have opportunity to consolidate their learning. In Phase 2, children will learn to hear, say, recognise and write individual phonemes. They will use 'magic arm' to segment and blend consonant vowel consonant (cvc) words for reading and writing. They will also learn to read some tricky words. By the end of Phase 2, children will be able to read and write cvc words, read simple captions and attempt writing simple sentences.

When children move into Year 2 during the first term, they will revise Phase 5 Phonics. Throughout the rest of Year 2 the children will be taught Phase 6 Phonics. At the beginning of Phase 6, children should know most of the common grapheme-phoneme correspondences (GPCs). They should be able to read hundreds of words, doing this in three ways:

- reading the words automatically if they are very familiar;
- decoding them quickly and silently because their sounding and blending routine is now well established;
- decoding them aloud.

Children's spelling should be phonemically accurate, although it may still be a little unconventional at times. Spelling usually lags, behind reading, as it is harder. During this phase, children become fluent readers and increasingly accurate spellers. Children will be reading longer and less familiar texts independently and with increasing fluency. The shift from learning to read to reading to learn takes place and children read for information and for pleasure. The work on spelling, which continues throughout this phase and beyond, will help children to understand more about the structure of words and consolidate their knowledge of GPCs.

N1 ~Autumn Term

Phase 1 consists of 7 aspects. We teach these aspects through activities and games in their discrete sessions and provide opportunities for children to explore them during their child-led sessions. When planning for phonics there will be 5 phonic sessions each week. In addition there is 'Brain Gym' time where children have a movement break responding to music and songs, focus activity sessions which may include writing and/or reading opportunities, CLL, Literacy based sessions and regular story times.

Phonic Phase 1
Aspect 1 - General Sound Discrimination
Key points to remember Aspect 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Picture and symbol prompts for good listening - on key person and in area • Calm area with lack of distractions • Small group • Gesture/sign language to support understanding • Use child's name before any sound cue • EAL children - find home language word for 'listen' • Use prompt questions to support recall of vocabulary - what would you do with it, where would you find it? • Slow songs down to help children join in • Vary the voice to add interest to animal sounds and avoid the conventional e.g. woof • EAL children - how are animal sounds represented in home language
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Engage with children in role play and imaginative play to extend their talk and enrich their vocabulary Encourage children to use language for thinking by asking open questions such as What does it feel like to be in the tunnel? Make large movements with swirling ribbons to develop physical skills Explore with children the different sounds animals make, including imaginary ones such as dragons Provide opportunities for children to experiment making sounds with different objects indoor and out Create role play areas that encourage children to use language for a range of purposes

Aspect 2 - Instrumental Sounds
Key points to remember Aspect 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make time for copying actions with instruments • Give children time to play with animal puppets and toys and talk about the sounds they make • Have animals with the instruments and discuss which choices of instruments are appropriate for the animal sounds and/or why they have chosen that instrument • Have visitors in to play different instruments
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Children use home-made shakers to explore and learn how sounds can be changed Which children can make up simple rhythms How well do the children listen to each other as they play in the band Experiment with outdoor musical instruments Allow children time to revisit adult led activities

Aspect 3 - Body percussion
Key points to remember Aspect 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remind the children to look and listen to the adult and also to each other • It might be necessary to demonstrate the sounds to the children before each activity starts in order to 'tune them in' and to encourage them to describe the sounds they hear. • Give children plenty of time and space to practise large-scale movements every day • Support children to adjust the volume of their own voices

Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Use outdoor area to find different ways of making sounds with their bodies March, stamp, splash to a beat. Opportunities to re-enact familiar stories Stress simple sound patterns to accompany children's mark making Talk with children as they paint and comment on the movements and shapes they are making

N1 ~Summer Term

Each term specific books, songs and rhymes will be targeted to support children in developing their story understanding and develop a wide repertoire of songs and rhymes.

Letters and Sounds Phase 1 aspects	Story Bag	Nursery Rhymes (Jemima the rhymers)
Aspect 4: Rhyme	Rhyming Books (TIS 4) Finish the Rhyme (LRS 4)	Learning songs and rhymes (4) Our favourite rhymes (4) Rhyming Soup (4) Rhyming bingo (4) Playing with words (theme objects) (4)

Phonic Phase 1	Aspect 4 - Rhyming
Key points to remember Aspect 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children need to experience a rich repertoire of poems, rhymes and songs. Keep parents informed of any new rhymes you are learning • Songs and rhymes are effective ways of learning the speech patterns of language for EAL children • Nonsense rhymes help children to begin to generate rhyme and rhyming patterns • Model back correct speech • Keep songs slow to emphasise the rhyming patterns • Use rhyming cards and lotto games • Children may struggle to grasp rhyme - do not hold them back until they have mastered rhyme but continue to develop alongside other aspects of Ph1 and Ph2
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Build a stock of rhymes and provide opportunities to repeat them over and over in a variety of contexts Share books with children regularly - not only stories but rhymes as well Play with rhymes - invent new rhymes and change the words Remind children about rhymes they know and make link to them as you join them in their play

	Aspect 5 - Alliteration
Key points to remember Aspect 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sing rhymes and songs with alliterative lines e.g. sing a song of sixpence to help tune children's ears to the relationships between the sound structures of words • Keep practising familiar tongue twisters and create new ones • Children won't be able to produce a full range of initial sounds but ensure their attention is focused before reciting a string of sounds • Refer any speech difficulties identified by these activities • Support children who are self-conscious by modelling what they do in the mirror or ask them to copy each other before copying you • Whisper when modelling quiet sounds - pronounce correctly • Take note of any children who show some recognition of phoneme-grapheme correspondence and encourage their curiosity and interest • Value contributions from EAL children in their home language but be aware that the translation may not start with the same letter
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Use alliteration in their play e.g. juicy jelly at the café or she sells sea shells in the water tray Allow children access to focus activities in their free play Have rhyming and alliterative texts available in reading corner Provide CD's that children can listen to

Aspect 6 - Voice Sounds
Key points to remember Aspect 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use exaggerated voices and facial expressions when telling stories to support listening, attention and understanding • Tuning in to what the child is doing and joining in with them tells the child you are listening to them • EAL children may need time to observe others and rehearse the spoken challenge, don't ask them take the first turn • For extension, linguistic diversity and fun, draw on the knowledge of adults, parents and carers who speak additional languages and find out how they represent for example animal sounds.
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Encourage children to vocalise sounds as they play Introduce vocabulary to describe textures as children explore Encourage children to replicate water noises with words e.g. drip drip As children act out stories encourage them to use words for sound effects e.g. swish swish, squelch squirch

Phase 7 - Oral Blending and Segmenting
Key points to remember Aspect 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During Phase One, there is no expectation that children are introduced to graphemes. Some children may have prior knowledge from home and be interested in letters they see around them on signs, displays and in books. • Practitioners and teachers should certainly respond to children's comments and queries about letters and words in print. • Children who can hear phonemes in words and sound them out accurately are generally well placed to make a good start in reading and writing • Children learning EAL generally learn to hear sounds in words very easily • Children need to hear the sounds in the word spoken in sound-talk immediately followed by the whole word. Avoid being tempted to ask any question in between such as I wonder what that word can be? Or Do you know what that word is? The purpose is to model oral blending and immediately give the whole word • It is important only to segment and blend the last word in a sentence or phrase and not words that occur at the beginning or middle of the sentence. Over time and with lots of repetition, the children will get to know the routine and as they gain confidence they will provide the blended word before the adult

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Using a toy is preferable to a puppet because it is important that children watch the adult's face and mouth to see the sounds being articulated clearly, rather than focusing on the imitated movements of the puppet. It is very important to enunciate the phonemes very clearly and not to add an 'uh' to some. Avoid using words with adjacent consonants (eg 'sp' as in 'spoon') as these will probably be too difficult for children at the early stages of practising blending and segmenting. Once children have been introduced to blending and segmenting they should be practised hand in hand as they are reversible processes.
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Encourage the children to vocalise as they play for example on the hoppers 'h' 'h' 'h' When children choose to play with the sound talk toys listen out to how well they are trying to segment words into phonemes As children play with the balls, bounce a ball alongside them making the sound 'b' 'b' 'b' When children are in the writing area, note whether they are beginning to say their messages aloud as they write, as they have seen adults do

N2 ~Spring and Summer Term

It is important to recognise that during the Spring and Summer Term some children will revisit the Phase 1 Aspects to consolidate and secure learning whilst others will begin Phase 2. Phase 2 aspects will be linking letters and sounds and segmenting and blending cvc words. These will be revisited to ensure the children are secure in Phase 2.

Key points to remember	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During Phase two, the children are introduced to graphemes and phonemes. They will build on their prior knowledge and through repetition begin to read words and eventually reading simple phrases. • CVC words using the learnt Phase 2 phonemes will be taught as well as some tricky words. • Children will practice recognising, hearing and saying phonemes through the use of well-paced flashcards and games. • Children with SEND will engage with the interactive learning and EAL children will hear sounds more easily. • Children need to hear the sounds in the word spoken in sound-talk immediately followed by the whole word. • It is important only to segment and blend the last word in a sentence or phrase and not words that occur at the beginning or middle of the sentence. Over time and with lots of repetition, the children will get to know the routine and as they gain confidence they will provide the blended word before the adult. • It is very important to enunciate the phonemes very clearly and not to add an 'uh' to some. • Avoid using words with adjacent consonants (eg 'sp' as in 'spoon') as these will probably be too difficult for children at the early stages of practising blending and segmenting. • Once children have been introduced to blending and segmenting they should be practised hand in hand as they are reversible processes.
Opportunities to explore across the curriculum	Allow children access to focus activities in their free play Book banded books are available in the reading area for children to access. Writing opportunities to be encouraged during child initiated time.
